Police News

Auto break-ins reported

Five Hoopeston residents reported items missing from their autos over the weekend, including:

- Penny Connor, 215 N. Market, who reported a Yamaha baritone horn taken from her 1989 Mercury. The horn was later found.
- Reese Wagoner, 311 E. Seminary, who reported the owner's manual was taken from his 1994 Tracer. The manual contained insurance and registration cards, and a black cord to a radar detector.
- Joseph R. Garrett, 508 N. Third St., who reported a Cobra radar detector was taken from his 1975 Chevrolet.
- Amanda Parker, 910 E. Young, who reported a coat and purse were taken from her auto.
- Rocky D. Walker, 415 E. Young, who reported a compound bow and arrows missing from his 1990 Ford.

Police said the thefts all occurred while the vehicles were parked at their owners' homes.

In other police news:

Someone threw rocks at the front plate window of the driver's license facility, breaking the outer pane.

Steve Rhodes, 424 E. Wyman, reported Friday that he lost his wallet while working at Floral Hill Cemetery. The wallet contains his license, Social Security card, other papers and cash.

Kenny Henson, 1312 E. Empire, Bloomington, reported Friday that some time in the last two weeks, someone damaged a 1993 Chevrolet pickup truck parked in the GTE building on East Penn.

A yellow light on the truck was damaged, along with a radio antenna which was knocked from its mount. A right front tire was also cut and a scratch made on the left quarter panel.

A Carton compound bow and arrow were found Saturday at North Seventh St., just off East Main. The items, in a black plastic case, may be identified and claimed at the police station.

Wayne Schwartz, 36, of 618 N. Third St., was arrested at 12:36 a.m. Saturday on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear.

Schwartz was released on $150 bond.

Philip E. Krementz, 26, of 902 E. Young, was arrested at 2:44 a.m. Sunday, charged with domestic
